

SAVE COOLING ENERGY WITH SHADING

You may feel cooler by using the room's shades to keep the sun out. Try this first, before you zap the air-condition through lower temperatures. You will reduce space cooling load by 14% to 15% and contribute in the global effort to save energy resources and protect the environment.

